THE GREAT REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION, WHICH IS ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT IN THE HISTORY OF THE G. O. P. IS RUNNING AT FULL BLAST AT THE COLISEUM

United States Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, As Its Temporary and Permanent Chairman, and His Keynote Speech Was Full of Logic, Horse Sense and Eloquence

All Signs Strongly Indicate at the Present Writing, That Major General Leonard Wood, Who Is Still Far in the Lead Over All of His Competitors, Will Be Nominated President of The United States

Mayor William Hale Thompson Continues His Bitter and Broadside Fight Against Governor Frank O. Lowden, and It Looks as Though That Mayor Thompson Has Put Him Out of the Running for President of the United States.

The Chief Executive of This City and More Than Twenty Other Delegates from Cook County Will Vote Against Him in the Convention, for They Are Not in Favor of Permitting Him to Buy His Way Into the White House With Cash.

Hon. Lawrence Y. Sherman Succeeds Mayor Thompson As the Illinois Member of the Republican National Committee.

Tuesday morning the Republican National Convention convened at the Coliseum in this city, and long before the morning session began the Coliseum was filled to the brim with the biggest and the most prominent Republican politicians from all parts of this broad land and from the isles beyond the sea. Many of those who make and unmake Presidents were well to the front on the platform, and some of them who pull the last long string which permits all but one of the presidential candidates to plunge headlong into his political grave are carefully kept in the rear out of sight of the maddened and unreasoning crowd who flock to the Coliseum during its sessions.

The distinguished honor of serving as Temporary and Permanent Chairman of the Convention very gracefully fell upon the broad and statesmanlike shoulders of Hon. Henry Cabot Lodge, the eminent United States Senator from Massachusetts, and his keynote speech was the greatest effort of his long and eventful political career. While delivering his history-making oration he bitterly scored President Woodrow Wilson up one side and down the other for his utter failure in being unable to fully or to completely grasp and solve the many grave problems and important and far-reaching questions which are now confronting the American people, which cannot be settled until they are settled right.

Senator Lodge's keynote speech is worth reading several times, for it is chock full of wholesome meat and sound logic.

None of the wisest high chiefs of the Republican party at this writing can tell dead sure who will be permitted to ride the Presidential horse, for a dark horse with a white rider may be selected, but to a blind man sitting away up in the tree, the indications are that Major General Leonard Wood will be nominated for President of the United States.

It was stated in these columns right after the Springfield convention, that "mighty hot times were ahead for the big Republican politicians in Illinois," and our predictions or words have come true, for Mayor William Hale Thompson and Governor Frank O. Lowden have locked horns for good in a most deadly combat and Mayor Thompson and twenty to twenty-five other delegates in this city and in Cook county will vote against Governor Lowden right on the floor of the Convention hall, for they honestly feel that Governor Lowden is unworthy to seek that honored position after it has been proven that he bought up delegates, white and colored, with cold cash in his mad effort to ride into the White House in his private Pullman car, and as long as Governor Lowden fails to have behind him the solid delegation from his home state the chances are ten to one that he never will land the nomination for President of the United States.

Not being willing to assist Governor Lowden to buy his way into the White House with "tainted money," Mayor Thompson refused to enter the contest for re-election as National committeeman, and Hon. Lawrence Y. Sherman has succeeded him as the Illinois member of the Republican National Committee.

RESOLUTION PRESENTED TO THE COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS OF THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION BY HON. OSCAR DE PRIEST AND OTHER COLORED DELEGATES.

"All American citizens, without distinction or discrimination on account of race, color, nationality or religion, should be protected at home as well as abroad, and be safe and secure in the exercise and enjoyment of all of the civil and political rights to which they are lawfully entitled.

"To that end we favor such legislation as will fix and prescribe a uniform qualification of electors throughout the United States, at least for the election of Presidential electors and Senators and Representatives in Congress. If, in the meantime, any State should, for the purpose of violating or evading the Constitution of the United States, make or enforce any law or regulation which would prevent certain persons from voting at such elections, who would otherwise be entitled to do so, the representation in Congress from that State should be reduced in the manner prescribed by the 14th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

prevent the application to interstate passengers, State laws or regulations providing separate accommodations for white and colored passengers upon public conveyances."

COLORED MINISTER MARRIES WHITE COUPLE IN VIRGINIA.

Danville, Va.—A wedding ceremony unparalleled in this town of stern Southern beliefs was performed a few days ago when a white couple were made man and wife by a Negro minister, who was asked to officiate.

A couple came here from Franklin County, obtained a license and went to the home of a well known Baptist minister, who told them he could not marry them because the man had been divorced, and that there was an agreement among the white clergy to perform no ceremony for a man or woman who had been defendant in such action. The couple then drove to the humble home of a Negro preacher who had no such scruples and the ceremony was performed.
